

Friday, August 8

7:30-8:30 Healthy Start - buffet with fresh fruit, Snoqualmie oatmeal, crunchy granola with toppings, yogurt and muffins Ticketed event

9-10 am Membership Meeting

10 – 10:30 am Vendor Exploration & Refreshments

	Sharp Sticks (Technology)	Smoke Signals (Collection Promotion &amp; Outreach)	Mountain Climbers (Management, Staff Development, Special Issues)	Trailblazers (Instruction &amp; Learning)	Bear Stew (General Interest)
Track 5 10:30 - noon	5.1 Information Commons: Cooperation Makes it Work!  Mix traditional reference with access to technology and expertise, toss in writing and you have an information commons! Find out how we did it!	5.2 Everybody Reads: Community Conversations Throughout the Palouse and the LC Valley  Find out how we developed a one book program with libraries, schools, universities, bookstores and more taking in 2 states and 7 counties.	5.3 Plugging Into the Numbers: Using Data to Make Some Noise about Library Services  How do you turn numbers into a story? Graphs, charts or data points can make a powerful statement, so find out how to use them effectively.	5.4 Growing Innovation in Libraries: Developing Labs for Learning, Research, Testing &amp; Play for All Ages  What if you had a space to introduce technologies, programs, learning and services? Find out what we learned from ours.	5.5 Office Yoga &amp; Pilates: Quick &amp; Healthy Ways to Improve Posture, Strengthen Core &amp; Increase Flexibility  Add fitness to your day– right at your own desk! Feel better, have more energy, and reduce stress. Dress comfortably.

Noon-1:30 pm YRCA Luncheon (Ticketed event) with Jodi Lynn Anderson author of Peaches, the Senior Division winner (Choice of Parmesan crusted chicken breast served on penne pasta or Medley of roasted vegetables in pastry) Ticketed event

1:15-2:00 pm Vendor Exploration--Last Chance!

Track 6 2-3:00 pm	6.1 Making Web 2.0 Tools Work for Your Special Library  We'll focus on choosing collection- and staff level- appropriate social networking tools, overcoming obstacles, and evaluating 2.0 projects.	6.2 I Want That One Book...Teen Lit to Reel Them In!  We'll share a variety of high-interest titles covering different genres and formats. You'll walk away with a booklist to help with selection.	6.3 Showdown: Conflict Communication in the Workplace  Explore the nature of workplace conflict, identify your own conflict-management style, and learn to turn clashes into productive experiences.	6.4 Traveling the Information Goat Trail: Serving the Very Distant, the Involuntarily Clueless and the Self-Described "Techno-Peasants"  We'll share adventures of face to face library instruction to our distance-ed students and discuss how to best serve them.	6.5 Before Sundance: How Nell Shipman Made Her 'Little Dramas of the Big Places  Find out how the 1920s film maker Nell Shipman managed Hollywood magic from the Idaho wilds and enjoy one of her films.
----------------------	---	--	---	--	---

3:00-3:30 Refreshments

Track 7 3:30-5:00	7.1 New Channels for Content: A Structured Discussion  Discuss new channels for content delivery: audio books, direct ILL delivery, floating collections, e-serials, and whatever else you toss in.	7.2 Reading the Region 2007-2008: Award Books from the Pacific Northwest  Join us for a rapid round of readable titles featuring recent award winners from PNLA states and provinces. Reviews cover all ages and interests.	7.3 Go Beyond the Expected: Educational and Certificate Opportunities For Library Paraprofessional and Support Staff  Library paraprofessionals are more than just clerical staff. They are para-information professionals. Find out about learning opportunities.	7.4 Integrating Information Literacy Within the Disciplines: A Faculty-Centered Approach  Students can develop information literacy skills when those skills are integrated throughout the major. We found a way to do it.	7.5 Changes in Scholarly Communication: What's Going On and Why You Should Care  Open access journals and other changes in the way researchers communicate can have impact on all libraries. Find out what how.
----------------------	--	--	---	---	--

5:30-6:30 No-host cocktail hour

6:30-7:45 PNLA Banquet with David Matheson (Taste of Tuscany--Italian buffet) Ticketed Event

8:00-9:00 Nell Shipman Screening Free