

Thursday, August 7

7:30-8:30 am	Brave heart Breakfast (Scrambled eggs/roasted potatoes with choice of ham, bacon, or sausage links or French toast plate) Ticketed event
	Sharp Sticks (Technology)	Smoke Signals (Collection Promotion & Outreach)	Mountain Climbers (Management, Staff Development, Special	Trailblazers (Instruction & Learning)	Bear Stew (General Interest)
Track 1 9-10:30 am	1.1 Creative Outreach Approaches, presented by SPLAT (Note: replaces Thinking about Technology & Change) Targeting teens, twenties, techies, and more, Idaho SPLAT members share their top tips and creative approaches for providing terrific service.	1.2 Encounters in Reader's Advisory and Reference Multimedia moments will lead to discussions on tools, techniques and technologies that benefit you, with time for discussion sprinkled throughout.	1.3 The Art of Grant Success: Hitting the Sweet Spot, Capturing the Money Pot Follow these suggestions and insider tips, and understand how plentiful grant opportunities are. You'll also come away knowing how to get them, too.	1.4 Gather Data, Build Programs, Strengthen Teaching Discover how to use assessment data to answer questions about student learning, provide renewed direction to instruction, and more.	1.5 Out of the frying pan: How to Avoid Getting Burned...Out Stress is part of life, but does this mean that everyone will burnout? Does stress lead to burnout, or is burnout a different problem?
10 – 10:30 am	Vendor Exploration & Refreshments
Track 2 11-12:30 pm	2.1 Embracing Technology – A Learning Opportunity for Library Staff In 2007, the Deschutes Public Library created our own Learning 2.0 staff training program. See how we developed one that was educational and fun!	2.2 A Moveable Feast: A Veritable Cornucopia of Books for Readers of Every Taste Explore the commonalities of food and books. Our 3-course offering will show you how to pair these two delights and why they work so well together.	2.3 Strategic Learning Opportunities for Career Advancement Evaluate your career goals in light of your career path and recognize inconsistencies, and learn how to get where you want to go.	2.4 Contemporary Artists, Composers, Filmmakers, and Playwrights--Show Me the Sources! This session focuses on instruction and reference service on contemporary artists, composers, filmmakers, and playwrights.	2.5 Sue Nipp, Children's Author Learn how to use music and songs in storytimes and lapsits. Get tips on creating a children's literacy and public art project.
12:30-2:00 pm	Lunch with author C.J. Box	Idaho baker with soup and salad bar	Ticketed event
Track 3 2-3:30 pm	3.1 Linking with Library Thing Learn how our libraries use Library Thing. We'll demonstrate how to use it to reach patrons, for acquisitions and collection development, and more.	3.2 Storytime Puppetry for Ones and Twos Using puppets catches (and holds) the attention of young attendees. It also can be used to developing early literacy skills and model creative play.	3.3 Controlling Project Chaos: Project Management for Library Staff Do you find that you're doing more project work in your library? Do your small projects seem to grow into large ones? If so, attend this session!	3.4 Will Duct Tape Cure My Warts? Exploring Complementary and Alternative Medicine (CAM) Increase your understanding of CAM. Learn how it's used, how to avoid "bad science," and how to find evidence of therapy effectiveness.	3.5 Imprudence and Presumption ~or~ Lasting Impressions of Mr. Fitzwilliam Darcy Ever think you'd like to write a book from a different viewpoint than the author's original? That is just what author/library director has done.
3:30-4	Vendor Exploration & Refreshments
Track 4 4-5:30	4.1 Taking the Reins: Website Redesign by the Librarians, for the Users Whether you want an all-out web redesign or just to tweak your pages, learn about considerations and pitfalls, and how to improve your site.	4.2 Glimpses of the Elusive Publisher: Showcase of Small Press Books Thrill to the excitement of the wide diversity and range of topics! And listen to intrepid reviewers as they discuss 50+ good books from small presses.	4.3 Adventures in Leadership: Leaders in Their Natural Element We attempt to capture leaders in their natural environments. You will be amazed by observations of behavior, awed by sheer numbers, and entertained!	4.4 Made to Stick: How to Make Your Ideas More Memorable Come with an idea in mind and work through exercises exploring the six key components of "stickiness" to make your idea memorable.	4.5 The Conservation Kitchen: Basic Tools for Any Preservation Recipe Learn how the Washington State Library cares for and preserves its unique collections. Come away with basic archival repair tips.
5:30-9:00 pm	No-Host evening of shopping, dinner, or site seeing. Free Ride.		Tentative schedule	5:30 pm	Bus Leaves for Downtown Coeur d'Alene
6:30-9:00 pm	Corks & Cans Ticketed event			6:15 pm	Bus Leaves for Downtown Coeur d'Alene
				7:30 pm	Return trip to Red Lion Templins'
				8:30 pm	Return trip to Red Lion Templins'
				9:30 pm	Return trip to Red Lion Templins'