

Then

PACIFIC NORTHWEST LIBRARY CONFERENCE
Seattle, June 8, 9, 10, 1909

PROGRAM

Tuesday, 2 P. M.—University of Washington Library.

1. Address of Welcome President T. F. Kane, University of Washington
2. Reports of Officers and Committees of Washington Library Ass'n.
3. Appointment of Committees.
4. Work of a Public Library Commission Miss Cora E. Marvin, Oregon Library Commission
Discussion. Leader, Mr. J. M. Hill, State Librarian, Olympia
Note—After this meeting the members of the Conference were entertained by the staff of the University Library at a picnic supper at Ravenna Park.

Wednesday, 9:30 A. M. to 12 noon—University of Washington Library.

1. Library Training for Teachers Miss Josephine Meisner, University of Washington
2. What the Library Can Do for the Schools Miss Ellen Garfield Smith, Walla Walla Free Public Library
3. What the School Needs from the Library Miss Isabelle Austin, Primary Supervisor, Tacoma Public Schools

Wednesday, 1 P. M.—Luncheon at Seattle Public Library.

Wednesday, 2 P. M.—Seattle Public Library.

1. Work of a County Library Miss Mary Frances Isom, Library Association of Portland
General Discussion.
2. How to Select and Advise Children's Books Miss Gertrude E. Andrus, Seattle Public Library
Discussion. Leader, Miss Jessie M. Carson, Tacoma Public Library

Thursday, 9:30 A. M.—University of Washington Library.

1. Libraries of British Columbia Mr. E. O. S. Schofield, Librarian, Legislative Library of British Columbia
2. Co-operation of Libraries of the Northwest General Discussion
3. Reports of Committees.
4. Election of Officers.

The Conference was also the fifth annual meeting of the Washington Library Association.

100th Year
Join PNLA's
Celebration!
Missoula, Montana
August 5 -7, 2009

... and now

Wednesday, August 5, 2009:

Preconference 1
Copyright Part 1: Basics, including Fair Use and Section 108

Preconference 2
Copyright Part 2: Advanced, including the TEACH Act, DMCA and Licensing presented by Tomas A. Lipinski,

Professor and M.L.I.S. Program Director,
School of Information Studies,
University of Wisconsin—Milwaukee

Find all the conference details at www.pnla.org/events/conference09/index1.html

Greetings from Missoula!

We hope to see you soon in the last best place as we celebrate PNLA's 100th year!

Come take part in "A Century of Cooperation, A Legacy of Leadership" at this year's PNLA Conference, August 5-7 in Missoula, Montana. Education and adventure awaits along with old friends and new.

See you there!
Samantha Hines,
1st VP/President Elect

And don't miss

Rafting through the Aliberton Gorge

PNLA's 100th Year Celebration

... and much more!

