

2009 Conference Luncheon Speakers

Thursday, August 6

Jeannette Ingold

Young Adult Author

- Born in New York and lives in Montana with husband Kurt and two children.
- Enjoys hiking, photography, travel, history and watching wildlife.
- Author of short stories and a half-dozen award-winning novels including:
 - Big Burn Montana Book Award Honor & Western Writers of America Spur Award
 - Hitch Christopher Award & the Society of School Librarians International Best Book
 - The Window - ALA Best Book for Young Adults & International Reading Association Young Adults' Choice

Friday, August 7

Dr. Camila A. Alire

Incoming
ALA President

- Dean Emeritus - University of New Mexico and Colorado State University - Fort Collins, CO.
- Professor of Practice (adjunct) - Simmons College PhD program in managerial leadership.
- Faculty member (part-time) - San Jose State University Executive MLIS.
- President (2006) - Association of College & Research Library
- Writing focus
 - Academic library marketing and advocacy
 - Library services for Latinos/other minorities
 - Library disaster recovery
 - Recruitment/retention of minorities in the library profession.
- Co Authored-
 - Serving Latino Communities* (2007)
 - Academic Librarians as Emotionally Intelligent Leaders* (2007)

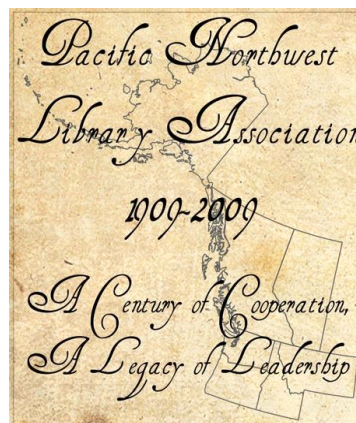

Western Meadowlark — Montana's State Bird

Don't Forget..

$95.00
Early Bird
Registration Ends
June 27th

PNLA Conference 2009

August 5 - 7, 2009
Missoula, Montana
Holiday Inn - Parkside